Toronto, Canada: "Join The Biggest Party On Planet Earth...Come "Party On D Road"

The moment to set your inhibitions free is here. Envision yourself amid a crowd, hands stretched to the skies while chanting with synchronization; "Dey cyah stop we." Your next step is to establish a relationship with the asphalt below your feet as you prepare to "Party On D Road."

SW Storm, through his 2014 contribution has taken his time to paint an image which encompasses an energy that will be felt and understood by those engaging with it. Storm is extending an official invitation for all to party nonstop on the road and revel as though it's the last time to jump and wine.

Storm has teamed up with ace producer Sheriff from Black Ice Studios to create the groovy road track titled "Party On D Road". This amazing production coupled with brilliantly selected wording is sure to receive approval from the masses. As the rhythmic patterns begin to play, the excitement will be felt from the first chorus. One thing is certain, you will be drawn into the euphoria of the road where the partying will never end.

Keep your eyes on SW Storm as he continues to prepare for Carnival 2014.
